Overseas Rule of Law & Capacity Building

PROELIUM LAW PROVIDES EXPERTISE FOR RULE OF LAW CAPACITY AND CAPABILITY BUILDING PROJECTS IN HIGH RISK AND HOSTILE ENVIRONMENTS.

Failed, failing and complex environments, by their nature, need investment and support. A development priority must be rule of law, in the context of human rights compliance.

PROTECT AND CONTROL

Nobody is above the law. To enforce the law requires a structured legal system and process which, if done correctly, should protect society from dictatorship and anarchy and in turn protect and control the legitimacy of government.

STABILITY IN A CONFLICT STATE

The rule of law is crucial to achieving and maintaining stability in conflict and post-conflict states by removing impunity, allowing reconciliation and setting the conditions for a peaceful normality to take root. There is a clearer path to achieving peace and justice, if the rule of law is in place and functioning as it should.
